"Listening to James was an exceptional experience. His candor, experience and easy-going speaking style kept his story very engaging. But it was hearing about the obstacles that he faced, and what the turning points were for him, that kept me on the edge of my seat, wanting to stand up and hug him, then wanting to hear more about how he became such a strong, confident, and successful man. Anyone from teenagers to business professionals will benefit from hearing his story and how he was able to overcome such tragedy and not just survive, but thrive!"

"As I was listening to James tell his story I could not help but cry. His story as a child is one that none should ever endure. While the experience itself is one that will leave scars forever. James has taken the experience and turned it into strength and inspiration. He took his survival fighting skills from one that could have easily been on the path to incarceration into becoming a world fighting champion. He took his story from one of being a quiet victim into one that is making a difference in the lives of others and to be a voice that this type of abuse and violence is NOT ok and is NOT acceptable. He is breaking the chain of continued behaviors and driving one to inspire others to become better in their lives." Many thanks to James for sharing and encouraging to make a positive difference in the lives of others.

"James story is awesome and heartbreaking. For a kid to 'fight' his way out of poverty and abuse at such an impressionable time in his life is remarkable. You need to hear James story and share it with any kid under the age of 18. There is a way up, and there is a way out, and James is proof."

- ✔ The Reality of Entrepreneurship, You Can Do It
- ✔ Think & Live Like a Champion

Obstacles didn't stop after foster care ended. I still had college issues, racism, homelessness and work life balance problems facing me in the future. The only way I was able to make it through was by applying the Champion Mindset to my life. I speak about how you can apply the Champion Mindset to your life and live on top of the podium on a daily basis! I also talk about how I started and maintain my business JH Brands! Think like a CHAMPION!! I have a question/ answer session at the end.

Audience: Big dreamers, business owners, future business owners, students majoring in management or entrepreneurship, high achievers and anyone who has a goal they want to achieve but need motivation to keep going forward. Attaining greatness is a hard and sometimes lonely road but it can be done and I can tell you how to do it!

Sales / Leadership

- ✔ ABC = Always Be Closing

I've been a top salesman for 10 years across three different industries. I have sold mobile devices, property, casualty, life and health insurance and personal training packages. I was a top salesman in each industry. I give a step by step process to bring your sales to the championship level like mine. BEAST MODE!

Parenting and Relationship Talks

- ✔ Defying the Odds!
- ✔ A Good Parent is Hard to Find
- ✔ You Think You Know Me. A talk from a child's point of view in regards to foster care or adoption.

Being a former foster kid I understand what staff and parents go through on a day to day basis. I now thank all parents and staff for guiding me to success and for helping all kids in need have better lives. I am an example of what can happen with love and care from staff and foster parents. I tell my story of humility and gratefulness to all those in the industry who give themselves to help those in need. I follow my speech with a question/answer session at the end.

Audience: The foster care industry, especially social workers, therapists, foster parents, students majoring in social work or mental sciences and youth, newlyweds, married or soon to be married couples.
